Dear Bob,

This letter is to certify that Coastal Instruments (Dandong) Co. Ltd located at No. 7 Tongxing Industrial Compound, Zhen'an District, Dandong, Liaoning, P. R. China 118011 meets the requirements set down by Alicat Scientific, Inc. to be the authorized Alicat Scientific instrument service center for all provinces of China. Service is to include both NIST Traceable Calibration and repair of all Alicat instruments sold in China.

This Service Agreement will begin as of this date February 17, 2012 and continue until such time that Alicat Scientific or Coastal instruments decides to discontinue this relationship.

Thank you for your willingness to support Alicat Scientific products in China and help us to maintain our commitment to excellent service for which both our companies are so well known.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Donald C. Hughes".

Donald C. Hughes
Vice President Alicat Scientific, Inc.
